

HISTORY OF MEDICINE

Course tutor: Lecturer Dr. Bojoga Daliana

Optional course - addressed to fourth-year students for both the Romanian and English sections

The main objectives of the course are the presentation of the history of archaic medicine, natural medicine, the history of anesthesia, extraction, focal infection, emergencies in oral-maxillo-facial surgery, periodontology, prosthetics, odontology, pedodontics and preventive dental medicine, the presentation of Geto-Dacian medicine, of the history of the school of dental medicine, data on the development of the dental unit as well as the history of radiology in dental medicine.

The courses are in the form of oral lectures held with the help of structured, interactive Powerpoint presentations, according to the theme, accompanied by rich and suggestive iconography.

